STUDENTS ARE BACK IN SCHOOL! ARE YOU PREPARED?

TMF HAS YOU COVERED!

Greetings!

In the tradition of providing quality products, customer care and services, TMF is continually evolving to meet top standards for performance groups and organizations.

With the climate of what is happening in the world, TMF has taken steps to develop products to help protect musicians during this time. TMF is offering customized school logo face masks with a slit (to accommodate instrument mouthpiece) following recommendation found in the Performing Arts Aerosol Study.

Also, following the same guidelines, we have instrument bell covers available for your student performers.

TMF is here to assist you in making safety a top priority for your performance organization. Please contact TMF for any questions. We are ready to take your order.

Best Regards,
Willie Pérez, CEO
Texas Music Festivals Enterprise, INC.
